Step 2: I start Watch the video playing a song by Pink Floyd. Pay particular attention to the conditional	Ne faire figurer que la vidéo sur la page + un sentences/if sentences used in the lyrics. At the end of the song, complete the exercise.

Song: If, Pink Floyd: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=aT-nS_ESpbM&t=1s

Exercise.

1. How many types of conditional sentences are used in the song?

QCM: 2 / 3 / 4

Can you identify them?

Lyrics:

"If I were a swan, I'd be gone.

If I were a train, I'd be late.

And if I were a good man, I'd talk with you more often than I do.

If I were to sleep, I could (would be able to) dream.

If I were afraid, I could (would be able to) hide.

If I go insane, please don't put your wires in my brain.

If I were the moon, I'd be cool.

If I were a rule, I would bend.

If I were a good man, I'd understand the spaces between friends.

If I were alone, I would cry.

And if I were with you, I'd be home ...and dry.

And if I go insane, will you still let me join in with the game?

If I were a swan, I'd be gone.

If I were a train, I'd be late again.

If I were a good man, I'd talk to you more often than I do."

Step 3: I learn

I learn
Video ("watch&listen")

Watch the video: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=PiBLQfNb8RQ>

(0:00 > 2min49)

After watching the video, match the sentences with the appropriate description.

If you heat water, it boils.	Things that are always true; facts (zero conditional)
If it rains, I will get wet.	Real and possible situations in the present or future (first conditional)
If I won the lottery, I would buy a big house.	"Unreal" or impossible things in the present or future (second conditional)
If I had got up earlier, I wouldn't have missed the bus.	Past hypothetical situations; things that did not happen (third conditional)

Step 4: Summary (in English and in French)

Conditional sentences are used to express that something can, could, or could have happened under certain conditions. They describe probable or imaginary situations.

There are 4 types of conditionals in English.

Zero conditional: Things that are always true; facts

If people don't drink water, they get dehydrated.

First conditional: Real and possible situations in the present or future

If it rains tomorrow, we'll cancel the picnic.

Second conditional: "Unreal" or impossible things in the present or future

If he studied more, he would get better grades.

Third conditional: Past hypothetical situations; things that did not happen

If she had left earlier, she wouldn't have missed the train.

Les phrases conditionnelles servent à exprimer que quelque chose peut, pourrait ou aurait pu se produire sous certaines conditions. Elles parlent de situations probables ou imaginaires.

En anglais, on trouve 4 formes de conditionnel:

Cas 0 : Vérité générale, fait scientifique, habitude (zero conditional)

- If you heat ice, it melts.
- Si l'on fait chauffer de la glace, elle fond. (fait scientifique)
- If I finish work early, I usually go out for a run.
- Si je finis de travailler tôt, je vais courir. (habitude)

Schéma : If + présent simple + présent simple

Cas 1 : Condition présente et impact sur le futur (first conditional)

- If I work hard, I will pass my exam.
- Si je travaille dur, je réussirai mon examen.

Schéma : If + verbe au présent, will + base verbale (= verbe sans "to")

Cas 2 : Conditionnel (second conditional)

- If I worked hard, I would pass my exam.
- Si je travaillais dur, je réussirais mon examen.

Schéma : If + verbe au prétérit, would + base verbale (= verbe sans "to")

Cas 3 : Irréel du passé (il exprime souvent un regret) (third conditional)

- If I had worked hard, I would have passed my exam.
- Si j'avais travaillé dur, j'aurais réussi mon examen.

Schéma : If + verbe au pluperfect (had + participe passé), would have + participe passé

Step 5: I practise

“Language work”

Exercise 1. Match each sentence with its definition.

1. If people don't sleep enough, they feel tired.
2. If it rains tomorrow, we'll stay indoors.
3. If I had studied more, I would have passed the test.
4. If you don't water plants, they die.
5. If we lived by the beach, we would go surfing every day.
6. If I were rich, I would travel the world.
7. If we hurry, we'll catch the bus.
8. If I hadn't eaten so much, I wouldn't have felt sick.

If you don't come back in 10 minutes, I [will call] (call) your parents.	Réponses correctes en gras, entre crochets
Step 6: I say  "Voicework" Conditional statements tend to have a specific rhythm and intonation pattern, with the first part of the sentence ending on rising intonation, and the second part of the sentence falling back down. There is a slight pause between the two parts of the sentence. Listen to the following examples and repeat them aloud, paying attention to the intonation and pausing. If you heat ice, it melts. If you work hard, you will pass your exam. If you worked hard, you would pass your exam. If you had worked hard, you would have passed your exam. Negative statements require a little more emphasis on the negative word(s). If you don't work hard, you won't succeed. If you didn't work hard, you wouldn't pass your exam. If you hadn't worked hard, you wouldn't have passed your exam.

Step 7: I do “Autonomy” You've reached the end of this brick —congratulations! It's now time for the final test. You'll have X minutes to complete it, and only one attempt is allowed. Exercise 2. Listen to the audio, then choose the correct description for each sentence.	Réponses: 1A / 2B / 3C / 4A / 5B / 6C /

1. If you heat ice, it melts. 2. If it rains tomorrow, we'll stay inside. 3. If I won the lottery, I would travel the world. 4. If you mix red and blue, you get purple. 5. If he calls me tonight, I'll tell him the news. 6. If I were taller, I would play basketball. 7. If we had taken a taxi, we wouldn't have been late. 8. If you don't water plants, they die. 9. If they arrive before 8, we'll have time for dinner. A. This is always true; it's a fact (zero conditional) B. This is a real and possible situation in the present or future (first conditional) C. This is an "unreal" or impossible thing in the present or future (second conditional) D. This is something that did not happen (third conditional)	7D / 8A / 9C On a besoin d'un enregistrement audio ! Un score sur 9 sera donné à cet exercice
Exercise 3: Fill in the blanks If you (plan) plan to study or intern overseas next year, don't forget that some scholarships are available to help you financially. If I (manage) manage to get all my homework done in time, I enjoy exercising in the fitness room every Monday after class. Of course, if I (can) could, I (exercise) would exercise more often to be even fitter but it's not always easy to cope with our heavy workload. But here is my new resolution: starting next year, if I can get organised enough, I (go) will go to the pool once a week as well. I (help) would have helped you to write your lab report that day if I hadn't been sick.	Réponses en gras Un score sur 6 sera donné à cet exercice
Step 8: I share  "groupclass" Choose one of the questions below and write down your answer. In class, you will use your written work to tell your partner about your desert island or engineering dream. 1. If you could be teleported to a desert island now, what would you take with you (10 objects maximum) and why? Or 2. As a graduate, you will be able to make a difference in the world. What would you do if you had nearly unlimited powers?
Step 9: I want more

In this song, Bruno Mars uses several conditional sentences to express a strong probability. Enjoy and sing along! https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=A-OxRox4Wvk
Step 10: Toolbox - List of irregular verbs (ex 30 most common IV – see doc) - Pronunciation: https://howjsay.com/ - Dictionary: https://www.wordreference.com/ - Dictionary US: https://www.merriam-webster.com/ - Dictionary UK: https://www.oxfordlearnersdictionaries.com/
Step 11: For teachers 1. Writing exercises - If you had a time machine, where would you go? Why? - “If I were the mayor of my town, I would...” - If you could live in any fictional world (from books, films, or games), where would you go and what role would you play? - If you could switch lives with anyone for one day, who would it be and what would you do? 2. Conversations: - [In pairs/small groups] Ask each student to find 3 questions that start with “what would you do if....”, then ask these questions to their classmates - [In pairs/small groups] “What if” game: Cards or slips of paper with realistic or imaginative “What if” scenarios. Students draw a card/slip of paper and discuss: - What if we had no internet for a week? - What if your best friend lied to you? - What if you could go to London for free? - What if sugar was actually good for health? etc 3. Songs: - If I were a boy, Beyonce - If it hadn't been for love, Adele - If I had a million dollars, Barenaked Ladies	Invisible to students
